

DAY TRIPS FROM KENCH HILL

Kench Hill is located in rural Kent, the bountiful garden of England. There are numerous visitor attractions and educational sites within an hour's journey time. Inspirational gardens, historical monuments, picturesque villages, farms, orchards, beaches and a variety of natural habitats all provide exciting, stimulating and memorable trips. Some places charge an entrance fee, but many are free of charge. Kench Hill has National Trust membership for free entry to NT sites.

Most day trips require coach hire at a cost of £235+. Kench Hill's minibus is an economical option for groups of up to 30 pupils and is available for local trips (up to 15 miles). It seats 16 + driver - visiting staff with MIDAS are insured by The Learning Trust. The cost varies according to distance, priced at 75p per mile. Please contact us to discuss the best transport options.

NB Visitor attractions and coach hire can get booked up early, especially in the Summer Term. Contact us as soon as possible if you would like to arrange a day trip – at least 3 months in advance.

Prices quoted are for 2007-8 season
